eighteen hundred fifty, are hereby repealed, and the lands reserved for public uses in tracts on townships organized for election purposes are hereby transferred to the care and custody of the land agent.

SECT. 2. The land agent shall in the management and disposition of said reserved lands, be governed by the provisions of the act of which this act is amendatory and the proceeds of all sales of timber, or grass, when paid into the treasury of the state, shall be credited to each tract or township respectively, according to the provisions of the sixth section of said act.

Land agent, management of reserved lands. Proceeds of sales, &c.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval by the governor.

[Approved April 24, 1852.]

Chapter 285.

An act to enlarge the powers of constables.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. Constables of any town in this state duly qualified to serve precepts, are hereby empowered to serve all writs and precepts in any plantations adjoining the town for which they are elected in the same manner that they may serve within the limits of said town.

Constables of towns qualified to serve precepts in adjoining plantations.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect on and after its approval by the governor.

[Approved April 24, 1852.]

Chapter 286.

An act to repeal an act, entitled, "an act to amend the seventy-sixth chapter of the revised statutes," approved June second, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. Chapter two hundred and ten of the public laws, approved June second, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, entitled "an act to amend the seventy-sixth chapter of the revised statutes," is hereby repealed.

Ch. 210 stat. 1851, repealed.

CHAP. 287. SECT. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval by the governor.

[Approved April 24, 1852.]

Chapter 287.

An act additional to and amendatory of chapter eighty-seven of the revised statutes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Ch. 87, sec. 11,
R.S., amended.

SECT. 1. Chapter eighty-seven, section eleven, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended by striking out from the third line of said section the words "where either of the parties reside" and inserting instead thereof, the words "for which he is appointed;" also by striking out from the last two lines of said section, the words, "any county where either of the parties resides" and inserting instead thereof, the words "each and every such county," so that said section as amended, shall read as follows :

Justices of the peace, limits to solemnize marriages, prescribed.

SECT. 11. Every justice of the peace appointed for any particular county, and in which he resides, may solemnize marriages in such county for which he is appointed; and every justice of the peace appointed for each and every county in the state, may solemnize marriages in each and every such county.

Sec. 12 amended.

SECT. 2. The same chapter is hereby amended, by striking out all after the word "commission" in the sixth line of section twelve, so that said section as amended, shall read as follows :

Ministers, appointed to solemnize marriages, limits prescribed.

SECT. 12. Every ordained minister of the gospel, duly appointed and commissioned for that purpose, by the governor and council, shall have power to solemnize marriages within the county, for which he was appointed, and in which he resides; and in any other counties where such power is given and expressed in his commission.

[Approved April 24, 1852.]
