Chapter 497.

An act to incorporate the town of Deblois.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Description
and boundaries.

SECT. 1. The tract of land in the county of Washington, now known as the plantation of Annsburg or township number seventeen, middle division, and bounded on the north by the town of Beddington, on the east by township number eighteen, middle division, on the south by the town of Cherryfield and township number ten, and on the west by township number sixteen, Hancock county, with the inhabitants thereon, is hereby incorporated into a town by the name of Deblois, and the inhabitants of said town are hereby vested with all the powers, privileges and immunities, and subject to the same liabilities as other incorporated towns in this state.

Corporate
name.
Powers, privileges and
liabilities.

Meeting for choice of officers.

SECT. 2. Any justice of the peace within said county is hereby empowered to issue a warrant to one of the inhabitants of said town requiring him to notify the inhabitants to meet at such time and place in said town as shall be appointed in said warrant for the choice of such officers as towns are by law empowered and required to choose at their annual meetings.

When to take effect.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force on and after the first day of April next.

[Approved March 4, 1852.]
