WILLIAM T. JOHNSON, PRINTER TO THE STATE.

1854.

PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1854.

CHAP. 65.

and assign any such real estate, or any interest therein, to any citizen of the United States in the same manner, and to the same effect, as native born citizens might do.

[Approved March 20, 1854.]

Chapter 65.

An act to increase the salary of the judge of the municipal court established in the city of Portland.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Salary, $1,000.

SECT. 1. From and after the first day of April next, the salary of the judge of the municipal court, established in the city of Portland and county of Cumberland, shall be ten hundred dollars, instead of the sum now provided by law.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect from and after its approval by the governor.

[Approved March 22, 1854.]

Chapter 66.

An act relating to the duties of clerks of the supreme judicial court.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Clerks of S. J. court to furnish attorney general with copies of all bills of exceptions, &c., before a law term.

It shall be the duty of the clerk of the supreme judicial court in each county, thirty days at least before any session of said court for the hearing and determining questions of law in the judicial district within which such county is embraced, to furnish to the attorney general of the state full copies of all bills of exceptions, motions to quash proceedings, or in arrest of judgment, motions for new trials, reports of evidence, demurrers to indictments, and all other pleadings or papers upon which questions of law arise or are reserved, in all criminal cases or other cases in which the state is a party, pending in said court, and to be heard and determined at such session; provided, that if such bills of exceptions, motions, reports or other pleadings or papers are not completed, allowed or filed more than thirty days before such session, they shall be so furnished immediately after being so completed, allowed and filed.

[Approved March 22, 1854.]
