PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1855.

CHAP. 144.Chapter 144.

An act additional to an act entitled "An act giving to laborers on lumber a lien thereon."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Lien on lumber,
action for enforcement of,
notice to be given to owner.

In all suits brought to enforce the lien given by the act to which this is additional, such notice shall be given to the owner of the lumber, as the court shall order, and the owner may come into court and defend such suit.

[Approved March 12, 1855.]

Chapter 145.

An act to regulate the fees of officers in certain cases.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Fees of certain officers regulated.

SECT. 1. In all cases where any judge of any municipal or police court, or any justice of the peace, shall issue any warrant for the commitment of any person to the county jail or house of correction, the officer serving such warrant shall receive for such service fifty cents, instead of the compensation now provided by law, and four cents for every mile of travel going and returning, together with such reasonable expenses as shall be incurred in the conveyance of such person.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect from and after its approval by the governor.

[Approved March 12, 1855.]

Chapter 146.

An act making valid the doings of cities, towns, plantations and districts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Town officers,
&c., authorized to amend returns and records.

SECT. 1. Whenever errors or informalities exist in the returns of officers who have served warrants for city, town, plantation and school district meetings, said returning officers may, upon oath administered by any justice of the peace in the county where said officers live, amend the same according to the fact; and any informalities, omissions or errors in the tax lists and records of any city,
