PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1855.

CHAP. 167. together with this precept. And you, the keeper of the said jail in — aforesaid, are hereby in like manner commanded, in the name of the State of Maine, to receive the said E. F. into your custody, in said jail, and him there safely to keep until he shall comply with said sentence, or be otherwise discharged by due course of law.

Given under my hand and seal this — day of — A. D. —.

A. B., Justice of the Peace.

When the sentence shall be, in addition to the fine, thirty, sixty or ninety days imprisonment, the substance of the complaint being duly set forth, insert in the mittimus instead of the words included in the foregoing form in brackets, as follows: [and — days imprisonment in the common jail, all which sentence, the said E. F. now being before me, remains to be complied with and performed.] If the fine and costs are paid, insert, [which sentence to — days imprisonment, the said E. F., now being before me, remains to be complied with and performed,] and in like manner in all cases the substance of the complaint being set forth, and the recital of the sentence, conformed to the fact, the same form in substance may be used, and shall be sufficient in law.

SECT. 33. The act entitled An act for the suppression of drinking houses and tippling shops, approved June second, eighteen hundred and fifty-one, and an act entitled An act in addition to chapter two hundred eleven of the statutes of eighteen hundred and fifty-one, approved March thirty-first, eighteen hundred and fifty-three, and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act, are hereby repealed; saving all actions, indictments and other processes pending, and that said acts shall be continued in force for the punishment of all offenses committed under said acts, up to the time when this act shall take effect.

SECT. 34. This act shall take effect on the first day of May, eighteen hundred and fifty-five.

[Approved March 16, 1855.]

Chapter 167.

An act for the regulation of bowling alleys.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

SECT. 1. No person shall keep a bowling alley, without license, under a penalty of ten dollars for each day that the same is kept and used.
