Chapter 475.

An act to establish the easterly line of Patricktown Plantation.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

The easterly line of Patricktown Plantation, is hereby established, by commencing at a point on the south line of the town of Palermo, as established by a commission appointed by the supreme court, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, four hundred and fifty-four rods from the south-east corner of said town of Palermo, running thence, in a south-westerly direction in a direct line, about four hundred and eighty-six rods, to a stone monument on the westerly line of the town of Washington, thence on the westerly line of said town of Washington in the several directions indicated, and distances named, in the act incorporating the town of Putnam, now called Washington, to a point where said west line of the town of Washington intersects the north line of the town of Jefferson, the same point being the south-east corner of Patricktown Plantation, the same to be hereafter considered the easterly line of said plantation, which is hereby established.

Line established:
