PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS ·

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

---

CHAP. 514. them, may have in the property, franchise or other rights, interests or estates, personal, real or mixed, now or formerly belonging or appertaining to said canal corporation; and when the interests or estates of said canal corporation, or of said assignees or mortgagees, or both of them, shall have been granted and conveyed to this corporation, it shall be vested with and succeed to, and may exercise all the rights and privileges of its respective grantors. And the said canal corporation is hereby authorized to convey to the said Lake Sebago Railroad Company, upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon by the parties, all its property, estates and franchises; and the said president, directors and company of the canal bank are hereby empowered to convey to said railroad corporation, upon such terms as may be agreed upon, all the interest which said bank has or may have in the property or franchises aforesaid. Provided, however, that whenever the said railroad company shall take from the said Cumberland and Oxford canal corporation a conveyance or release of its corporate rights and franchises, it shall become subject thenceforth and thereafter to discharge its corporate duties and fulfil the conditions of its charter, and be subject to all corporate liabilities thenceforward accruing, in the same manner and to the same extent that said canal corporation was previously liable, and the same remedies shall be in force for and against said railroad corporation to enforce the rights and duties aforesaid, which now exist for or against said canal corporation.

[Approved March 16, 1855.]
