Chapter 260.

Resolves relating to the veto of the French spoliation bill.

French spolia-
bill, in relation to.

Resolved, That the recent veto by the president of these United States of the French spoliation bill, so called, has created a general and well founded disappointment and dissatisfaction throughout this state; and that the reasons given by the president for this arbitrary act, are extraordinary and wholly insufficient.

Resolved, That the obligation of the general government to make indemnity for the French spoliation, (in part provided for by said bill,) has been repeatedly examined and demonstrated in congress, and ought to be faithfully performed.

Resolved, That our senators in congress be instructed, and our representatives requested, to endeavor, in every practicable way, to secure the payment of the claims of the citizens of these United States, on account of said French spoliations.
