SECT. 3. This act shall be in force upon its approval by the governor.

[Approved March 13, 1856.]

Chapter 597.

An act additional to "An act to authorize the city of Bangor to aid the construction of the Oldtown and Lincoln Railroad."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

SECT. 1. The second section of the act approved March first, eighteen hundred and fifty-four, to which this is additional, is so far amended, as to extend the time within which said company may complete the first section of its road, from its terminus in the town of Milford, to its terminus in the town of Lincoln, ready for the superstructure, the period of three years; and to extend the time for the completion of the second section of its road, from its terminus in Lincoln, to its terminus at Mattawamkeag point, ready for the superstructure, a period of six years, so that the time allowed to said company for the completion of its road according to the requirements of said act, shall be six years on the first section, and nine years on the second section, instead of the time fixed in said act.

Time for completion of said railroad extended.

SECT. 2. This act shall not take effect unless it shall be accepted by said company, and by a vote of the inhabitants of said city voting in ward meetings duly called according to law, within six months after the approval of this act by the governor; and at least two-thirds of the votes cast at such ward meetings shall be necessary for the acceptance of this act. The return of such ward meetings shall be made to the alder-

Act not to take effect unless accepted by company and city of Bangor.

Returns of meetings, to whom made.
