PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE.

1856.

at a price and on terms to be agreed on by the parties, and if they cannot agree, then by referees mutually appointed by them, and if they cannot agree on referees, then by three referees appointed by any judge of the supreme judicial court residing in the county of Penobscot; to be appointed on the joint application of the parties or on the sole application of either, if the other refuses to join; which referees shall determine the price, time and mode of payment, and the persons to whom to be made; and if the log driving company shall perform said agreement or award, on their part to be performed, then this act shall be void.

[Approved April 9, 1856.]

Chapter 667.

An act additional to an act additional to an act to incorporate the Penobscot Log Driving Company.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

SECT. 1. The powers granted to the said company are hereby enlarged and extended, so as to include within the chartered limits thereof, the boom and piers now in process of being erected at the head of Chesuncook lake, which are to become the property of said company, and all the expenses of erecting and completing the same, are to be assumed and borne by said company.

Powers enlarged and extended.

SECT. 2. The company may assess a toll, pursuant to the provisions of their charter, not exceeding one dollar for every thousand feet board measure of logs driven under the provisions of said act; and all acts and parts of acts, providing for any different rate of toll, are hereby repealed, except that they shall remain in force as to all tolls heretofore assessed and remaining uncollected.

May assess a toll.

Inconsistent acts repealed, &c.

SECT. 3. The directors may authorize the treasurer to give the company notes for the amount necessary to be raised to pay the expenses of erecting said boom and piers, for such sums and payable at such times as they direct. Provided, this act shall be accepted by the said company at a meeting called for that purpose.

Directors may authorize the treasurer to give company notes, &c.

Proviso.

SECT. 4. This act shall not take effect until the said company shall purchase the boom and piers mentioned in the first section, in the manner provided in this act, and in the sixth

Act, when to take effect.

CHAP. 668. section of an act, entitled "An act to incorporate the West Branch Chesuncook Boom Corporation," enacted in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-six; but if the owners of said works refuse to sell the same in the manner aforesaid, then this act shall have full force and effect.

[Approved April 9, 1856.]
