STATE OF MAINE.

The joint special committee to whom was referred the proceedings of the late governor and council in relation to the claim of Samuel F. Hersey and Dudley C. Hall to certain townships of land purchased by Maine from Massachusetts, have had that subject under consideration, and after an examination of the matter thus referred, ask leave to

REPORT, AS FOLLOWS:

By a resolve of the legislature, February 22, 1853, the land agent of this state was directed to proceed to Massachusetts to procure from Massachusetts an offer to sell her lands in Maine. In March, 1853, the land agent returned with an offer from Massachusetts to sell to Maine her lands in this state. Thereupon, Hon. Reuel Williams, Elijah L. Hamlin, and Wm. P. Fessenden, were appointed commissioners to make a purchase of the lands belonging to Massachusetts in this state, which purchase was consummated by contract, in July, 1853, of all the interest of Massachusetts to lands in Maine, reserving only "the legal rights, claims; and interest of all parties, claiming under sales and permits," "but all upon the terms and conditions mentioned and agreed upon in the several instruments and writings given to the respective parties at the time when such sales and permits were made and given."
