Chapter 59.

An act for the preservation of trout in the Schoodiac waters.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Trout, taking of, prohibited.

SECT. 1. It shall not be lawful for any person, except upon his own land, to take any description of trout from the waters of the Schoodiac Grand Lake, Grand Lake stream, or any other of the lakes or streams known as the Schoodiac waters, in the county of Washington, in either of the months of May, June, September, October or November, in any year, except with a single baited hook and line.

SECT. 2. Any person who shall take trout from any of the waters described in the first section of this act, within either of the months named therein, with fly-hook, spoon-hook, Buel-hook, seine, spear, or in any other mode than with baited single hook and line, shall forfeit the sum of twenty dollars for each offense, to be recovered in an action of debt before any justice of the peace within and for said county of Washington, in the name of any person suing therefor, one-half the penalty to the use of the person suing for the same, and one-half to the use of the Passamaquoddy Indians, to be paid to the state agent of said tribe, for the benefit of the poor thereof.

SECT. 3. The apparatus and gear used for fishing in violation of this act shall be liable to be attached upon any process instituted under its provisions.

SECT. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval by the governor.

[Approved April 1, 1857.]

Chapter 60.

An act additional to "An act granting certain privileges to the islands composing the town of North Haven, in the county of Waldo."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

SECT. 1. When an application is made to the town of North Haven, at any annual town meeting, to cause the removal of the gates across any roads therein, and the town refuses so to do, any person aggrieved may appeal to the county commissioners of the same county, in the same manner, with the same rights, and under the same restrictions and liabilities as in cases of refusal on the part of towns to accept a town road laid out by the selectmen; and if they decide in favor of such removal, it shall have the same effect as if the town had so voted, and damages shall be paid to the land owners for building fences, as provided in section three of the act to which this is additional.
