CHAP. 126.

United States for the purpose of carrying out an act of congress, of March third, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, providing for the erection of "fortifications at the mouth of the Kennebec river, Maine," by building and maintaining thereon forts, magazines, arsenals, dock yards, wharves and other structures, with their appendages, and over all the contiguous shores, flats and waters, within four hundred yards from low water mark; and all right, title and claim, which this state may have to, or in the said "Hog Island Ledge," in Portland harbor, and said tract or tracts at or near the entrance to Kennebec river, are hereby granted to the United States; provided, that this state shall retain a concurrent jurisdiction with the United States, in and over all the premises aforesaid, so far as that all civil processes, and such criminal process as may issue, under the authority of this state, against any person or persons charged with crimes committed without the premises aforesaid, may be executed therein in the same way and manner as if jurisdiction had not been ceded as aforesaid.

Proviso.

Taxes, exempt from.

SECT. 2. The premises over which jurisdiction is granted by this act, and all structures and other property thereon, shall be exonerated and discharged from all taxes and assessments which may be laid or imposed, under the authority of this state, while said premises shall remain the property of the United States, and shall be used for the purposes intended by this act.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect from and after its approval by the governor.

[Approved April 17, 1857.]
