for the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and to send his warrant directed to the assessors of the town of New Vineyard, in said county, requiring them to assess the said sum of eighty dollars and thirty-one cents upon the polls and estates of the inhabitants and non-resident proprietors of said town of New Vineyard, requiring the same to be collected and paid into the treasury of state, on or before the first day of January next, being the proportion of the state tax, chargeable upon the polls and estates which were set off from Strong to New Vineyard by an act passed March twenty-eighth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

CHAP. 35.

Sum abated to be assessed on the town of New Vineyard.

[Approved March 20, 1857.]

Chapter 35.

Resolves relative to the death of Dr. Elisha Kent Kane.

Whereas, under the dispensation of the great, wise and just Ruler of all, our distinguished countryman, the late Dr. Elisha Kent Kane has recently been removed by death from among us, and,

Whereas, the people of Maine, in common with their fellow citizens throughout the Union, have watched with deep interest and pride the endeavors of the deceased to add to the treasures of geographical knowledge, endeavors successfully prosecuted amid hardships and dangers which only the boldest courage and steadiest perseverance could enable him to meet, shedding lustre upon science, and thereby contributing honor to the American name, and renown to our common country, therefore,

Resolved, That the senate and house of representatives of Maine have with the deepest feelings of sorrow and regret received intelligence of the death of Dr. Kane.

Resolved, That the spirit of heroism and self-sacrifice which induced him to lay his life upon the altar of a noble ambition, should endear him to every true American, and the irresistible energy and perseverance which distinguished his labors in his recent Arctic expedition, should make his name a watchword for all sincere lovers of science and progress.

Resolved, That while we lament the loss which our country and the cause of science have sustained in the removal of one of their brightest ornaments, we extend to the family and friends of the Chapter 36.

Resolve in favor of D. B. Hinckley.

D. B. Hinckley, in favor of.

Resolved, That there be appropriated out of the treasury of this state, to Daniel B. Hinckley, the sum of eighteen hundred and three dollars and thirty-six cents, which is in lieu of the provision made for said Hinckley by a resolve approved August twentieth, eighteen hundred fifty, and a resolve approved August twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred fifty, both of which last named resolves are hereby repealed. And the aforesaid sum if received by said Hinckley, to be in full for claims of said Hinckley on the state, on account of land conveyed by the state in township number five, range eleven.

[Approved March 20, 1857.]

Chapter 37.

Resolves for the promulgation of certain laws.

Laws, promulgation of.

Resolved, That all laws for the charter or incorporation of banking, railroad or insurance companies, or in any way regulating or appertaining thereto, shall be promulgated through the state paper, as public laws are now required to be. And the secretary of state is hereby directed to furnish copies of all such laws, as soon after their passage as may be, to the publishers of the state paper.

Resolve, application of.

Resolved, That this resolve shall apply to all laws of the character described, already passed at this session, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval by the governor.

[Approved March 20, 1857.]
