GOVERNOR WELLS' MESSAGE.

Gentlemen of the senate and house of representatives :

The governor and council, in accordance with the resolve of the ninth of April, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, respectfully report to the legislature that the Hon. James Walker, the land agent, acting under their advice and direction, has selected and set apart twenty-four half townships of public lands, for the benefit of common schools.

Their action upon the subject will fully appear by the documents accompanying this report.

SAMUEL WELLS.
