PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1860.

Chapter 182.

CHAP. 182.

An act additional to chapter one hundred forty-two of the revised statutes, relating to the reform school.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. The trustees may bind out all boys committed to their charge for a term of time within the period of their sentence, as apprentices to any suitable inhabitant of this state, when requested to do so by the overseers of the poor of any of the cities, towns or plantations that are liable to contribute to the support of such boys by the provisions of the act to which this is additional.

Trustees may bind out boys, on request of overseers of poor.

SECT. 2. Section ten of chapter thirty-seven of the act approved March twenty-six, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, entitled "an act additional to chapter one-hundred forty-two of the revised statutes relating to the reform school," is hereby repealed.

Ch. 37, sec. 10, of act 1853, repealed.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect after its approval by the governor.

[Approved March 19, 1860.]

Chapter 183.

An act in relation to the sale of timber on the public lands.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. The land agent is hereby authorized to grant permits to individuals to cut and haul pine, spruce, and hard wood timber upon any lands owned by the state ; provided however, that no permits shall be granted to any one individual or company, with liberty to employ more than two six ox teams.

Land agent may grant permits.

Proviso.

SECT. 2. No permit granted as aforesaid, shall be transferred by the person or persons obtaining the same, except for the purpose of securing payment for supplies advanced for operation under the same ; and any attempt at transfer, except for said purpose, shall operate to render void the rights attempted to be transferred.

Permits not to be transferred.

—attempt to transfer, effect of.

SECT. 3. A minimum price per thousand feet, board measure, shall be fixed by the land agent, having regard to its value, location and hauling distance ; and when there are several applications for the same timber, the land agent shall sell the same at auction, to the highest bidder, first giving at least thirty days public notice of the time and place of sale.

Minimum price.

When competition, sale at auction, notice.

SECT. 4. All persons obtaining permits, as aforesaid, shall be required to give a bond to the land agent, with satisfactory sure-

Bond to be given for stampage.
