

MAINE STATE LEGISLATURE

The following document is provided by the LAW AND LEGISLATIVE DIGITAL LIBRARY
at the Maine State Law and Legislative Reference Library
<http://legislature.maine.gov/lawlib>

Reproduced from scanned originals with text recognition applied
(searchable text may contain some errors and/or omissions)

ACTS AND RESOLVES

PASSED BY THE

THIRTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1860.

Published by the Secretary of State, agreeably to Resolves of June 23, 1820, February 26,
1840, and March 16, 1842.

AUGUSTA:
STEVENS & SAYWARD, PRINTERS TO THE STATE.
1860.

PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1860.

SECT. 4. Said bridge shall be built and completed within three years from the approval of this act by the governor.

SECT. 5. The said city of Belfast, or its successors or assigns, may call the first meeting of said corporation by notice published in any newspaper published in the city of Belfast, seven days before the day of meeting, and at such meeting by-laws may be adopted and all necessary officers chosen for managing the affairs of said corporation.

SECT. 6. This act shall be in force when approved by the governor.

[Approved March 9, 1860.]

CHAP. 422.

—when to be completed.
First meeting, how called.

By-laws.

Chapter 422.

An act to incorporate the town of Winterport.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. All that part of the town of Frankfort in the county of Waldo, lying northerly of the following described line, is hereby set off from said town and incorporated into a town by the name of Winterport, with all the powers, privileges and immunities and subject to all the duties and liabilities of other towns under the laws of the state, viz : beginning on the Penobscot river at the north line of the Enoch Sampson lot, so called ; thence northwesterly on said north line to the northwest corner thereof ; thence in a direct line to the northwest corner of Theodore M. Campbell's land ; thence by his west line to Marsh river ; thence by said river to Henry Fisher's southwesterly line ; thence by said Fisher's southwesterly line and in the same course to Edward Weston's land ; thence southwesterly by his land to the corner thereof ; thence northwesterly by the southwesterly line of said Weston's home farm, and in the same course to the road leading to Monroe, and thence by said road to the town line.

Winterport, town of, to incorporate.

Powers, &c.

Boundaries.

SECT. 2. The inhabitants of Winterport shall pay all unpaid taxes legally assessed on them by the town of Frankfort ; and all indebtedness and liabilities of Frankfort, and all claims and demands against it, in suit or otherwise, shall be shared and paid equally by said two towns ; and the town farm of Frankfort shall belong to the town of Winterport, but the town house, town safe, and all other town property shall belong to Frankfort.

Taxes, &c.

SECT. 3. The town of Winterport shall support all persons now chargeable as paupers in Frankfort, whose legal settlement is within the limits of Winterport ; and all persons hereafter becoming chargeable shall belong to that town on the territory of which they shall then have their legal settlement, whether direct or derivative.

Paupers.

CHAP. 423.

Unpaid taxes.

SECT. 4. The collector of taxes for the town of Frankfort is empowered to collect all unpaid taxes committed to him, according to his warrant, the same as if the town had not been divided.

Representative and school districts.

SECT. 5. The two towns shall constitute one representative district till otherwise provided by law; and the school districts through which the dividing line passes shall remain united and legal districts till otherwise provided by the towns according to law.

First meeting, how called.

SECT. 6. Washington Carlton may call the first meeting of the town of Winterport by posting a warrant therefor in three public and conspicuous places in said town at least seven days before the time appointed for said meeting, and specifying therein the time, place and purposes of said meeting, but if he neglects or refuses to do so for seven days after the approval of this act, a justice of the peace may call such meeting under the general law.

SECT. 7. This act shall take effect from and after its approval by the governor.

[Approved March 12, 1860.]

Chapter 423.

An act in addition to an act to set off a part of the town of Danville and annex the same to the town of Auburn.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Certain paupers, how supported.

SECT. 1. The settlements and support as paupers since the termination of the financial year in the town of Danville, for the year eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, of Benjamin Jordan, William Goss and Judith Pierce, are hereby transferred from the town of Danville to, and established in the town of Auburn, and any expenses incurred or paid by the town of Danville for their support since that time, are to be repaid to the town of Danville by the town of Auburn.

Settlement of certain persons established.

SECT. 2. Persons having a settlement in the town of Danville, at the time of the passage of the act to which this is additional, and whose last residence in Danville was upon that part which was by said act annexed to the town of Auburn, and who were absent, at the time of such annexation, shall have such settlement hereafter in the town of Auburn and not in the town of Danville.

Certain charges, &c., how to be paid.

SECT. 3. Whatever charges and expenses are by law chargeable and have been since such annexation, and may be chargeable to the said town of Danville by reason of a sentence of Horace W. Moore to confinement in the reform school, shall be assumed and paid by the town of Auburn.