Chapter 7.

An act to make valid the doings of the town officers of the town of Brunswick.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Brunswick,
selectmen or
assessors,
certain doings
of, made valid.

SECT. 1. The doings of the selectmen of the town of Brunswick, acting as assessors for the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in assessing and committing all sums of money raised by, and apportioned to said town as taxes for said years are hereby declared to be valid and sufficient in law, notwithstanding any error of said selectmen or assessors in committing said taxes to the assistant collector of taxes rather than to the collector.

—assistant
collector,
doings of,
made valid.

SECT. 2. The doings of the assistant collector of taxes in the town Brunswick, for the years aforesaid, are hereby declared to be valid and sufficient in law, notwithstanding any error of the selectmen or assessors in committing the warrants for those years to him rather than to the collector.

Assessors
authorized to make abate-
ments of taxes
of 1856 and 1857, &c.

SECT. 3. The assessors of the town of Brunswick, for the time being, are hereby fully authorized to make such abatements in the taxes of eighteen hundred and fifty-six and eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, as they may deem proper and to commit by warrant in due form of law all unpaid tax bills not so abated for the years eighteen hundred and fifty six and eighteen hundred and fifty-seven to any constable of the town of Brunswick for collection.

[Approved January 25, 1861.]
