PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1862.

---

Chapter 145.CHAP. 145.

An act to amend chapter fifty-seven of the public acts of eighteen hundred and sixty-one relating to the reform school.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

The last clause of the third section of the fifty-seventh chapter of the public acts of one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, is hereby amended so as to read as follows : and the expense of transporting such boy to the reform school, and of his subsistence and clothing during his imprisonment, not exceeding one dollar per week, shall be defrayed by the city or town where such boy resides, if within the state ; but if his residence be beyond the limits of the state, then such expense shall be defrayed by the state.

Expense of boys in reform school, by whom paid.

[Approved March 19, 1862.]

Chapter 146.

An act additional to chapter forty-six of the revised statutes concerning corporations.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. No transfer of shares hereafter made in any corporation in this state shall be valid, except between the parties thereto, until the same is so entered upon the books of the corporation as to exhibit the names of the parties, the number of the shares and the date of the transfer as at present provided for in section eleven, chapter forty-six of the revised statutes, but also the actual residence of the said parties.

Transfer of shares in corporations, how made valid.

SECT. 2. Cashiers of banks and clerks of corporations are hereby required to ascertain the residence of all persons owning stock in their particular bank or corporation, and no dividend shall be paid out from any bank or corporation in this state to any stockholder, whose residence for the time being is not entered upon the books of such bank or corporation.

Residence of stockholders to be ascertained.

[Approved March 19, 1862.]
