—to be exempt from taxation. Proviso.

Act to be exempt from the operation of Sec. 17th chap. 46, R. S.

SECT. 1. That Francis O. J. Smith, Francis B. Smith, John J. Speed, their associates and successors, are hereby made a corporation by the name of Smith's Home for Aged Indigent Mothers, for the purpose of providing for the support, at an established home, of aged indigent mothers, who shall not be otherwise provided for. And said corporation is hereby vested with all the powers and privileges, and subject to all the duties, liabilities and restrictions, set forth in the first nine sections of chapter forty-six of the revised statutes ; and for the purposes of dispensing charities, may take and hold so much real and personal estate, as shall be vested in said corporation by donation bequest, conveyance in fee for consideration paid, or by bequest or conveyance in trust, to be performed by said corporation ; and such property so held shall be exempt from taxation ; provided however, that said corporation shall not be capable of incurring any debt or liability, whereby any property, personal or real, or the income thereof, so as aforesaid held and derived, shall at any time be subject to attachment or execution, or to alienation, in any manner inconsistent with the terms and conditions upon which the title thereto shall have been invested in said corporation.

SECT. 2. This act shall be in force when approved by the governor, and shall be exempt from the operation of section seventeen of chapter forty-six of the revised statutes ; but this exemption shall not be construed, to have by implication, the effect of an express restriction of the power of the Legislature over the provisions of this act.

[Approved March 3, 1862.]
