CHAP. 197.

SECT. 2. The stock of any bank or other corporation held by persons unknown, and that has not been certified according to the provisions of chapter forty-six, section twenty-one of the revised statutes, to any city or town in this state, and is there assessed, and the stock of any bank or other corporation, appearing by the books of such bank or other corporation, to be held by persons residing beyond the limits of this state, and not exempted from taxation by the charter of such corporation, shall be assessed for its proportion of any state, county or town tax in, and by the assessors of the city or town where such bank or other corporation is located, or transacts its ordinary business, except such stock as may be held by persons not resident of the state as bona fide, and not colorable owners, without any intent to evade the payment of taxes, or to aid any resident of this state to evade the payment of taxes thereon; and the assessors of any city or town may abate any tax which they may assess on such stock, if at any time within three months after such notice is given according to the fourth section of this act, they are satisfied it was erroneously assessed, the assessors, however, to tax all such excepted stock, as they see fit, and the burden of proof to be on the holders of such stock to show that they are bona fide holders thereof; and such city or town making the assessment aforesaid, shall have a lien attaching from and after the date of such assessment to such stock, and all dividends thereon until such tax, and any costs or expenses arising in the collection thereof has been fully paid. No assignment, sale, transfer or attachment shall pass any property on such stock, unless the vendee shall first pay such tax and cost; and the cashiers of banks, and clerks of corporations required by the chapter and section aforesaid to make annual returns to assessors, are hereby directed to return to the assessors of the city or town where such bank or other corporation is located or transacts its business as aforesaid, all the stock in such bank or corporation not returned to the assessors of other cities or towns according to the provisions of said section; and such returns shall be made at the time and in the manner prescribed in said section, and shall be the basis of taxation of such property.

SECT. 3. The cashier of each bank, and the clerk or other officer of any corporation having possession of the books thereof, are required to exhibit, on demand, to the assessors of any city or town, all the books of such bank or corporation that contain any record of the stock of such bank or corporation, or any dividend declared or paid thereon, and if requested, shall deliver such assessors a true and certified copy of so much of such record as they may require. Should any cashier, clerk or other officer neglect or refuse to perform the duties required by this and the preceding sections, the assessors aforesaid may proceed to doom such bank or corporation in such sum as they deem reasonable, and the Bank stock held beyond the limits of the state to be taxed.

—may abate if erroneously assessed.

—lien on stock, &c.

—assignment, &c., not to pass property unless tax, &c., is paid.

—return of cashiers.

Cashier, &c., to make exhibit of books on demand to assessors.

—if cashiers neglect, &c.

Penalty.

assessment shall bind the bank or corporation, and the tax thereon shall not be abated; and such cashier, clerk or other officer shall be liable for such neglect or refusal to the penalty prescribed in section twenty-three, chapter forty-six of the Revised Statutes.

Collector to give notice of assessment, &c.

SECT. 4. The collector of any city or town, to whom has been committed a tax upon the stock of any bank or other corporation, shall within thirty days after the bills of assessment are delivered to him, cause a notice in writing to be delivered to the cashier of such bank, or clerk, president or director, or treasurer of such corporation, stating the description contained in the bills to him committed, of the stock taxed, to whom assessed, if stated in the bills, and the tax thereon. No dividend shall be paid on such stock after the service of the notice aforesaid, until the tax and any cost thereon has been paid. The cashier, clerk or other officer aforesaid may pay such tax, and such payment shall constitute a lawful charge in offset against any dividend on the stock taxed. Should such tax remain unpaid ninety days after the service of the notice aforesaid, the collector may proceed to sell such stock in the manner presented in chapter six, sections ninety-four and ninety-five of the revised statutes. For the purposes of collecting taxes on stocks, the limits and powers of collectors of taxes are extended and enlarged, and they may act in any city or town in this state.

—if not paid in ninety days, may sell.

Taxes, how collected.

SECT. 5. In addition to the remedies now provided by law for collecting taxes upon stocks of banks or other corporations, the treasurer of any city or town for the time being may maintain an action on the case against any bank or corporation aforesaid, and may recover therein the tax assessed and lawful charges upon any share thereof, provided there has been declared or paid after such tax was assessed, any dividend upon any share of said bank or corporation, but judgment shall not be rendered in such action for a larger sum in damages than the dividend thus declared or paid on any share of said stock would amount to, on any share of the stock taxed as aforesaid. The cashier of any bank, and the clerk or treasurer of any corporation, are hereby prohibited from paying any dividend to any stockholder on any share of such bank or corporation until the tax assessed on such share has been paid.

—damages.

Cashier not to pay dividend, &c., until tax is paid.

Not to repeal chap. 6, R. S.

SECT. 6. The provisions of this act shall not be construed as repealing any of the provisions of chapter six of the revised statutes.

Treasurer to issue warrant.

SECT. 7. The treasurer of this state shall, in the month of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty two, send his warrant with a copy of this tax act, directed to the mayor and aldermen, selectmen or assessors of each city, town and plantation taxed as aforesaid, requiring them respectively to assess in dollars and cents, the sums so charged according to the provisions of the laws for the assessment of taxes, and to add the amount of such tax, to the amount of county and town taxes to be by them assessed in each city, town, plantation or other place respectively.

SECT. 8. The treasurer in his said warrant shall require the said mayor, aldermen, selectmen or assessors respectively to pay, or to issue their several warrant or warrants requiring the collectors of their several cities, towns and plantations to pay the said treasurer, on or before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, the sums against said cities, towns and plantations respectively in this act contained; and said mayor, selectmen and assessors, respectively shall return a certificate of the names of such collectors, with the sum which each may be required to collect, to said treasurer sometime before the first day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

SECT. 9. Whenever for the period of forty days after the time fixed for the payment of this tax there shall be any delinquency to pay the same on the part of the collector of any city, town or plantation, it shall be the duty of the treasurer of the state to issue his warrant for enforcing the collection of the same against such collector. The warrant shall be directed to the sheriff or his deputy of the appropriate county, and made in accordance with the laws already existing on that subject, except that it shall be returnable in ninety days from its date; and in addition to the tax itself, it shall require the officer to collect interest thereon at the rate of six per centum, yearly, from the day when the tax became payable, with fifty cents more for the warrant and the lawful fees of such sheriff or deputy arising thereon.

SECT. 10. When any state tax assessed upon any city, town or plantation remains unpaid, such city, town or plantation is precluded from drawing from the state treasury the school fund set apart for such city, town or plantation, so long as such tax remains unpaid.

SECT. 11. This act shall take effect when approved by the governor.

Tax when to be paid into the treasury.

Names of collectors to be returned to treasurer.

State treasurer required to issue warrants for delinquencies.

--when returnable.

Officer to collect interest.
