RESOLVES

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1862.

---

Chapter 122.

CHAP. 122.

Resolves relating to the recognition of the independence of the republics of Hayti and Liberia.

Resolved, That the recognition of the independence of the republics of Hayti and Liberia by the United States is due to the great commercial interests of the Union, and would be eminently appropriate.

Republic of Hayti, &c., relating to.

Resolved, That the governor be requested to communicate copies of these resolutions to our senators and representatives in the congress of the United States.

[Approved February 14, 1862.]

Chapter 123.

Resolve to encourage allotments by volunteers.

WHEREAS, the government allowance to soldiers with the accumulation of surplus rations being adequate to all their ordinary wants, their obligations to themselves and their families and friends require such disposition of their monthly wages as shall secure the same from loss or improper disbursement; and whereas, the general and state governments have perfected arrangements for the safe and speedy transmission, without expense, of the pay of soldiers, to those to whom they may desire to intrust it, and have appointed commissioners to visit encampments and aid in accomplishing this object; therefore Preamble.

Resolved, That it is the duty of all officers of Maine volunteers so to co-operate with said commissioners in their work, as to secure from the men of their several commands an allotment of the whole, or so much of their monthly pay as it may be possible to procure, and also such portion of their own pay and emoluments, as economical habits will enable them to reserve, and transmit one copy of such allotment roll to the paymaster general of the United States, and one to the adjutant general of this state.

Allotment of soldiers pay, in relation to.

Resolved, That five hundred copies of these resolves be printed, and that the adjutant general cause each commander of brigade, regiment, battery and company of Maine volunteers now in service, to be furnished with a copy thereof.

Authorizing the printing, &c.

[Approved February 15, 1862.]
