RESOLVES

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1862.

Chapter 132.

CIIAP. 132.

Resolve providing for the payment of certain claims against the United States for recruiting soldiers in this state.

Resolved, That the governor and council be and are hereby authorized to audit the claims for personal services and necessary personal expenses incurred by persons, other than those who have been commissioned as officers in the service of the United States, who were authorized by the adjutant general to enlist soldiers in the regiments or batteries raised by the United States within this state, not included in the ten regiments raised under the act of April twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred sixty-one; and to such of the claimants as shall make a statement under oath of the number of soldiers they have recruited, and the disposition made of the same, and also of the sum or sums or other advantages, if any, which they have directly or indirectly received or will receive for such soldiers or for recruiting the same; and the governor and council are authorized to allow such compensation as they may deem just and proper, not exceeding the sum generally allowed and paid for similar services in raising the first ten regiments under the act aforesaid. When audited and allowed as aforesaid, the governor and council are authorized to draw their warrants and advance from the treasury of this state, on the credit of the United States, out of any money not otherwise appropriated, in payment of the several claimants, such amounts as may be found due. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as a recognition by this state of any claim against said state, rendering them liable or responsible for services or expenses in enlisting soldiers in the service aforesaid.
