PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1863.

CHAP. 206.

Secretary state to furnish copy.

SECT. 13. This act shall take effect on the first day of April, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, and the secretary of state shall furnish an attested copy of this act to the clerks of the several cities, towns and plantations of this state within thirty days from its approval by the governor.

Approved March 25, 1863.

Chapter 206.

An act additional to chapter forty-seven of the revised statutes, relating to receivers of banks.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Bond of receivers, sureties of.

—may be discharged.

New bond required.

Any surety in a bond given by receivers of a bank as provided by chapter forty-seven, section sixty-one of the revised statutes, after such notice as the supreme judicial court may order in the county where said receivers were appointed, may be discharged, the co-sureties consenting thereto, from all liability for all subsequent, but not from any prior breaches thereof, and the court may at its discretion require a new bond with sufficient sureties to be given, to be approved by the court.

Approved March 25, 1863.

Chapter 207.

An act to amend chapter eighteen of the revised statutes, relating to ways.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Chap. 18, sec.
61, R. S., relating to ways, amended.

Section sixty-one of chapter eighteen of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding to said section the following: at the trial of any such action the court may on motion of either party, order a view of the premises, to wit, the highway, townway, causeway or bridge, where the defect or want of repair is alleged to have existed whenever it appears that such view may materially aid in a clear understanding of the case.

Approved March 25, 1863.
