PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1863.

CHAP. 213. laws for the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, amendatory to said chapter fifteen, are hereby declared and made valid, notwithstanding the provisions of said chapters in relation to the time for building and running the steamboat and the tonnage of the same named in the proviso of section two of said chapter fifteen, may not have been strictly complied with.

Chapter 15
amended.

SECT. 2. Said chapter fifteen is hereby amended by striking out the words "not exceeding fifty tons" from the ninth line of the second section thereof, together with the comma after the word "tons" in said line.

Chapter 175
amended.

SECT. 3. Said chapter one hundred and seventy-five is hereby amended in the first section of said chapter by striking out the word "six" from the sixth line of said section and inserting instead thereof the word four, and by striking out from the seventh line of said section the word "fifteenth" and inserting instead thereof the word, twenty-fifth.

SECT. 4. This act shall take effect from and after its approval by the governor.

Approved February 12, 1863.

Chapter 213.

An act to set off a part of Franklin plantation in Oxford county and annex the same to the town of Sumner.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Franklin
plantation, certain lands
set off from,
and annexed to Sumner.

SECT. 1. All that part of Franklin plantation in Oxford county southerly of the following described line is hereby set off from said plantation and annexed to the town of Sumner, to wit: Beginning at the north-westerly corner of the Winthrop tract, so called, in said plantation, on Woodstock line, and running easterly on a straight line across the county road leading from Paris to Dixfield, ten rods south of where the John Doar house, so called, formerly stood; thence on the same point of compass to the line of the town of Peru.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect from and after its approval.

Approved February 12, 1863.
