CHAP. 266.

Act shall not be construed to repeal or supersede rights, &c.

Stockholders redeeming to give notice to stockholders not redeeming.

—rights of notified stockholders.

and upon a hearing had thereon, to adjudicate such dispute and make such decrees therein as the said court may deem reasonable and just. But nothing in this act shall be construed to repeal or supersede any rights or remedies which any such stockholder, bondholder or other claimant now has or may enforce at law or in equity, relating to the subject matters of this act. And it shall be the duty of any stockholders, so redeeming, to give the same notices to all stockholders who have not contributed towards such redemption, as are provided in this act in the case of bondholders; and such notified stockholders, shall, respectively, have the same right and privilege of contributing to such redemption in proportion to their stock, as is provided in this act for bondholders or other claimants who have failed to pay their proper proportions before redemption to the trustees who first redeemed.

SECT. 10. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval by the governor.

Approved March 25, 1864.

Chapter 266.
