RESOLVES

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1864.

Chapter 334.

Resolve in favor of Westbrook Seminary.

Westbrook Seminary, in favor of.

Resolved, That the land agent, under the instructions of the governor and council, be and he is hereby directed to sell the timber and lumber upon any one-half township of land belonging to the state, not already selected for the permanent school fund, and not otherwise appropriated, after advertising for six months in the state paper, in the paper nearest to where the land is situated, and in the Bangor Daily Whig and Courier, to receive at the land office sealed proposals for the timber and lumber on said one-half township of land in one-eighth sections, and the purchasers to have ten years to take off said timber and lumber and no longer. A record of the proposals shall be made and kept in the land office, which shall be open to any one after the day of sale; the proceeds of said sale not exceeding ten thousand dollars net, shall be by him paid to the trustees of the Westbrook Seminary. Provided, that the said trustees shall safely invest the proceeds of said sale as a permanent fund for the use and benefit of said seminary, the interest only to be annually expended; and provided further, that in consideration of this grant, the trustees shall place at the disposal of the governor and council five perpetual scholarships, giving free tuition in said seminary to such persons as may be designated by the governor and council, preference to be given to returned soldiers or their children or the children of such as have fallen in defence of their country, and always to the indigent and meritorious; and provided also, that the sum of ten thousand dollars shall be raised by the friends of the seminary and added to this grant for a permanent fund, the interest only to be annually expended, within two years from the passage of this resolve.

Proviso.
