PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1866.

Chapter 49.

CHAP. 49.

An act relating to appointments and removals of certain officers in cities.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

In all cases where appointments to office are directed or authorized to be made by the mayor and aldermen of cities, such appointments shall be made by the mayor, by and with the advice and consent of the aldermen, and such officers may be removed by the mayor.

Officers appointed by mayor and aldermen, may be removed by mayor.

Approved February 23, 1866.

Chapter 50.

An act relating to hawkers and pedlers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. No person except as hereinafter provided, shall travel from town to town, or place to place, in any town in this state, on foot, or by any kind of land or water conveyance whatsoever, carrying for sale, or offering for sale, any goods, wares or merchandise, whole or by sample, under a penalty of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars, and the forfeiture of all property thus unlawfully carried. But nothing in this act shall be construed as conflicting with the right of any commission merchant, or commercial broker, in any town or city in which he resides, from travelling from place to place in such town or city, and selling or offering to sell by sample or otherwise, any goods, wares or merchandise.

Sale of goods, &c., by persons travelling from place to place, prohibited.

Penalty and forfeiture.

Not applicable to resident merchants, &c., selling in their own city, town, &c.

SECT. 2. The county commissioners may license for the purposes aforesaid, any person who proves to their satisfaction that he sustains a good moral character, and has been five years a citizen of the United States, and such licenses shall expire in one year from their date, and shall not be transferable; and the person receiving such license shall pay therefor to the county treasurers, if he is to sell or offer to sell by retail, ten dollars; if by wholesale, twenty-five dollars; and said county treasurers shall pay all moneys received by them for such licenses into the treasury of the state; but nothing herein shall prevent any citizen of this state from selling any fish, fruit, provisions, farming utensils or other articles lawfully raised or manufactured in this state.

County commissioners may issue licenses, and to whom.

Duties to be paid for license, and how to be disposed of.

Sale by resident citizens of domestic products, &c., of this state, permitted.

SECT. 3. Every person who receives a license under this act, shall exhibit it at all times when required by any trial justice, constable or other peace officer, and upon refusal, he shall forfeit the

License to be exhibited to magistrates, &c., when
