CHAP. 69.Corporate name
and purpose.

Powers, &c.

Thomas, E. M. Hobbs, Joseph Tuttle, Eben W. Gregg, John W. Gould, Nathaniel B. Crockett, Calvin Crocker and Alvah Hobbs, with their associates and successors, are hereby constituted a body corporate by the name of the Rumford Bridge Company, for the purpose of erecting, and keeping in repair, a bridge over the Androscoggin river in Rumford; and said corporation shall have power to purchase and hold such personal and real estate as may be necessary to carry said object into effect; to prosecute and defend suits at law; to have and use a common seal; to make by-laws for the management of their concerns not repugnant to the laws of this state, and to have and enjoy all the powers and privileges incident to, or usually granted to similar corporations.

Approved February 10, 1866.

Chapter 69.

An act to incorporate the Penobscot Land and Mining Company.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Corporators.

Corporate name.

Powers, &c.

SECT. 1. John H. Lynde, F. A. Wilson, R. H. Hinman, Charles P. Stetson, their associates and successors are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate by the name of the Penobscot Land and Mining Company, with power to adopt a common seal, to sue and be sued, to acquire and hold real and personal estate and to lease, sell and convey, or otherwise dispose of the same; to adopt a code of by-laws not inconsistent with the laws of this state; and to do and perform such other acts and things as may be necessary for the successful prosecution of the business of said corporation.

Capital stock and shares.

SECT. 2. The capital stock of said corporation shall consist of five thousand shares of the par value of ten dollars for each share.

First meeting.

SECT. 3. The first meeting of said corporation, for the choice of officers, may be called to be held in Bangor by any two of the persons named in this act, by publishing notice thereof in the Bangor Daily Whig and Courier, published in Bangor, Penobscot county, seven days at least before the day of said meeting; and until such officers are thus chosen, the powers of said corporation may be exercised by the persons first named in this act, who may, for the time being, act as directors of said company, and a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Corporators
for the time being to be directors.

Approved February 10, 1866.
