PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1866.

Chapter 124.

CHAP. 124.

An act to set off part of the town of Bridgton and annex the same to Harrison.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. Lot numbered thirty-one in the first range, and lot numbered twenty-three which lies east of lot numbered twenty-six, and lot numbered twenty-four, and six and one half rods in width from the easterly end of lot numbered twenty-five, in the second range, all in the second division of lots of land in the town of Bridgton, with the inhabitants thereon, be and the same are hereby set off from the town of Bridgton in the county of Cumberland, and annexed to the town of Harrison in said county.

Location of lots set off from Bridgton and annexed to Harrison.

SECT. 2. The inhabitants and estates, so set off, shall be holden for the payment of all arrears of taxes which have been legally assessed upon them, together with their proportion of all corporate debts of said town of Bridgton, standing against said town at the time this act shall take effect; said proportion to be ascertained from and determined by the last valuation of said town of Bridgton, and the same may be assessed and collected by the same officers and in the same manner as if this act had not been passed; provided however, that said town of Harrison may, and is hereby authorized to assume and pay to said town of Bridgton, said proportion of corporate debts; and payment so made to the treasurer of Bridgton on or before the first day of June next, shall release the inhabitants and estates set off as aforesaid from all future liability for the payment of said corporate debts; but if said town of Harrison shall not assume and pay to said town of Bridgton, said proportion of said corporate debts as aforesaid, the inhabitants and estates, set off as aforesaid, shall not be liable to be assessed for any proportion of the indebtedness of said town of Harrison, incurred prior to the approval of this act.

Taxes and corporate debts.

Proportion of same, how determined, assessed and collected.

Proviso.

Exemptions.

SECT. 3. The town of Harrison, or persons holding the estates set off as aforesaid, as the case may be, having paid the proportion of the corporate debts of said town of Bridgton, as provided in the second section of this act, shall be entitled to a just proportion of all moneys which shall hereafter accrue and be paid to said town of Bridgton from the state or national governments, for expenses in any way incurred by said town of Bridgton for war purposes prior to the passage of this act.

Harrison or persons holding estates annexed thereto, entitled to proportion of moneys accruing to Bridgton for war expenses.

SECT. 4. For the purpose of assessing state and county taxes after the passage of this act, there shall be deducted from the valuation of the town of Bridgton the sum of six thousand and seventy-five dollars, and the same sum shall be added to the valuation of the town of Harrison; and the valuation of said towns are hereby changed as aforesaid.

Valuation.

SECT. 5. This act shall take effect on its approval.

Approved February 20, 1866.
