PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1867.

CHAP. 94.

after the word "not," the words "exclusive of," and inserting instead thereof the word including, so that the said section, as amended, shall read as follows :

School district may raise money and choose committees to provide school-houses.

SECT. 61. Such districts, at meetings called for the purpose, may raise money, and choose committees to hire, buy or build a school-house for their use, and the plantation assessors shall make a valuation of the real and personal estate in the district, whether owned by residents or not, including wild lands, and assess the money so raised on the polls and estates, and commit the tax to the collector, who shall collect it and pay it in to the treasurer.

Approved February 23, 1867.

Chapter 94.

An act relating to the reports of railroad corporations and insurance companies.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

R. S., chap. 51, sect. 36, and chap. 67, sect. 21, laws of 1859, amended.

Reports of corporations to be made in the month of Jan. annually.

The report of railroad corporations required to be made to the secretary of state, by section thirty-six, chapter fifty-one of the revised statutes, and the statements of insurance companies required by section twenty-one, chapter sixty-seven of the public laws of eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, to be transmitted to the secretary of state, shall hereafter be made and transmitted to the secretary of state in the month of January of each year, instead of the time now required by law.

Approved February 23, 1867.

Chapter 95.

An act additional to chapter one hundred and forty of the revised statutes, relating to the state-prison.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

When convicts in the state prison may be transferred to county jail.

Time of confinement in jail to be deducted from time of sentence.

Whenever it shall appear to the warden that there are more convicts in the state prison than can be confined there securely, he shall certify the fact to the governor and council, who may authorize him to transfer them to some county jail, and the jailer thereof shall receive such compensation from the state treasury as shall be agreed upon by the warden and himself; provided that whenever the accommodations of the prison shall be so increased that they can be safely confined therein, the warden shall remove them thence, and the time which they were so confined in jail shall be deducted from the time of their sentence.

CHAP. 96.

Approved February 23, 1867.

Chapter 96.

An act to amend section six of chapter one hundred and thirty-five of the revised statutes, relating to removing convicts from the county jails to the state prison.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Section six of chapter one hundred and thirty-five is hereby amended by adding the following words, viz : and shall at the same time provide the convict with comfortable and decent clothing in which he may be removed to the state prison, so that the section as amended shall read as follows :—When a convict is sentenced to confinement in the state prison, such clerk shall make out a warrant under seal of the court, directed to the warden of the prison, requiring him to cause such convict without needless delay to be removed from the county jail to the state prison ; and the warden and all sheriffs and jail keepers are required strictly to obey its directions ; and the clerk, as soon may be, shall deliver such warrant to the sheriff of the county, and he shall forthwith deliver it to said warden, and shall at the same time provide the convict with comfortable and decent clothing in which he may be removed to the state prison.

R. S., chap. 135, sect. 6, amended.

Removal of convicts to state prison upon sentence.

Convicts to be provided with comfortable and decent clothing.

Approved February 23, 1867.

Chapter 97.

An act to amend section one hundred forty-two of chapter six of the revised statutes, relating to collection of taxes, in incorporated places, on lands of non-resident owners.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Section one hundred and forty-two of chapter six of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out in the fifteenth line the words, "the state paper, three weeks successively," and inserting instead thereof the following words : some newspaper, if any, published in the county where such real estate lies, three weeks successively ; and if no newspaper is published in such county, said list shall be published in like manner in the state paper ; in either case

R. S., chap. 6, sect. 142, amended.
