bailed in the same manner as if committed for not finding sureties to recognize for him.

SECT. 2. At any time after default made upon the recognizance, bail may surrender their principal, as provided in the first section of this act, and the court for the county in which the default upon the recognizance is recorded may, on application therefor, being satisfied that the default of the principal was not with the consent or connivance of the bail, remit the whole or any part of the penalty.

Bail may so surrender principal after default.

Approved February 27, 1867.

Chapter 111.

An act in relation to the evidence of the enlistment and situation of soldiers during their service under the United States government.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

SECT. 1. The certificate of the adjutant general of this state, from the records of his office, relating to the enlistment of any person into the United States service from this state, and of all facts pertaining to the situation of such person up to and including his discharge, as found upon the records in said office, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts so found upon the records and certified to any in any suit or proceeding in any of the courts and tribunals of this state.

Certificate of adjutant gen. relating to enlistments, &c., to be received as prima facie evidence.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect when approved by the governor.
