CHAP. 241.

Scrip of co.,
when and to
whom issued
and how held.

Further
condition as to mortgage of railroad.

Condition as to forfeiture of
franchise, &c.,
under former
act applicable
hereto.

When to take effect, and
condition of acceptance by

manner as is specified and provided for the payment of the scrip and interest thereon, named in said act to which this is additional. The said company shall, on the reception of any such scrip or bonds, deliver to the treasurer of said town, the scrip of said company, with interest coupons, corresponding in amounts and dates with the scrip so received by the company, to be held by the town, as collateral security and for the purposes contemplated by the said third section of the original act. And the mortgage of said railroad and other property to the town, by said company, as is provided in and by section the fourth of the act to which this is additional shall be valid and effectual to hold said railroad, its franchise and all its property then owned by said company, or which said company may subsequently acquire, to indemnify and save the town harmless against all loss on account of the scrip issued under the authority of this act equally with that issued under the provisions of the acts to which this is additional. And in case the condition of said bond shall not be wholly performed, possession of said railroad, its franchise and all property before specified may be taken possession of and proceedings had to foreclose said mortgage in the manner provided in and by the said act to which this is additional.

SECT. 2. This act shall not take effect unless, within two years from its approval by the governor, it shall be accepted by said company, and also by the inhabitants of said town voting in some town meeting duly called according to law; nor unless two-thirds, at the least, of the votes cast at such town meeting shall be in favor of the acceptance of the act; and the votes shall be received, counted and declared by the selectmen of the town, who shall preside at such meeting; and it shall be the duty of the town clerk to make a record of the doings of said meeting.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect when approved by the governor.

Approved February 8, 1867.
