Chapter 286.

An act in addition to an act entitled "an act to incorporate the Monmouth Mutual Fire Insurance Company," approved March eighteen, eighteen hundred and thirty-six.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

May insure in separate class, &c., to be known as second class. SECT. 1. The Monmouth Mutual Fire Insurance Company is hereby authorized and empowered to insure in a separate and distinct class, to be denominated the second class, any description of property, real or personal, within this state, and to issue policies of insurance against loss or damage by fire for any term of time not exceeding seven years.

Risks under original charter to be known as first class. SECT. 2. All property now insured, or which may hereafter be insured by said company, under the act to which this act is additional, shall be kept in a separate and distinct class, to be called the first class, and each class shall be liable for its own losses ; the premium notes and cash deposits of each class shall be holden and assessed to pay the losses and expenses occurring in their respective classes, and not each for the other ; and the policy of each member of the company shall designate with which class he is associated. The company shall open books of account with each class, and all business receipts, disbursements, losses, assessments and expenses shall be put to the class to which they are applicable ; and the general expenses of the company which are not strictly applicable to either class, shall be apportioned between the two classes according to the amount insured by each.

Each class liable only for its own losses.

To be separately kept in books of account.

Apportionment of expenses.

Conditions of membership. SECT. 3. Every person who may become a member of said company by effecting insurance therein, in said second class, shall, before he receives his policy, pay in cash a sum to be agreed upon by the parties, and established by the directors, for the purposes of discharging the incidental expenses of said second class, and con-

Funds of second class, and how disposed of.
