CHAP. 175.

An act to prevent obstructions to travel.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

SECT. 1. All persons are hereby forbidden to place rocks, stones, or any obstructions, in the travelled roads in this state, and leave them there, under penalty of a fine of one dollar for each and every offence, to be recovered to the use of the town where the offence is committed, on complaint before any competent tribunal.

Obstruction in travelled roads prohibited under penalty.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 26, 1868.

Chapter 176.

An act to amend section nine of chapter seventy-eight of the revised statutes, relating to the courts in Washington county.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

SECT. 1. Section nine of chapter seventy-eight of the revised statutes, is hereby amended by striking out after the word "Machias," in the sixteenth line, the following words: "on the first Wednesdays next after the first Tuesdays of January and October," and inserting instead thereof the following words: 'on the first Wednesday next after the third Tuesday of October,' so that the whole clause, as amended, shall read as follows:—'In the county of Washington, at Machias, on the first Wednesday next after the third Tuesday of October, and the first Wednesday next after the fourth Tuesday of April.'

R. S., chap. 78, sect. 9, amended.
