Chapter 424.

An act to incorporate the Royal River Paper Company.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Corporators.

SECT. 1. Richard O. Conant, Weston F. Milliken, Jefferson C. Coolidge, Nathan M. Woodman, H. F. Furbush, Byron D. Verrill, Samuel Bucknam, Sylvanus C. Blanchard, E. D. Lane, Charles D. Brown, Giles Loring, James N. Winslow, and Sumner C. Rand, with their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby made and constituted a body politic and corporate, by the name of the Royal River Paper Company, with all the powers and privileges, and subject to all the duties and liabilities, contained in the laws of the state relating to manufacturing corporations; and said company is authorized to manufacture, by water, steam, or other power, at Yarmouth or Portland, and to sell, there and elsewhere, paper of any kind or description, by or through themselves, their agents or lessees, and to do all things proper and necessary for the purposes of such manufacturing business.

Powers.

Location and purpose.

Capital.

SECT. 2. The capital stock of said company shall be fifty thousand dollars, to be issued in shares of not less than one hundred dollars each; and all receipts heretofore issued by James N. Winslow, for money or value paid in advance, for shares in said company, shall be convertible into certificates of stock in said company, upon its organization under this act.

Organization.

SECT. 3. The first meeting of said company may be called by publishing, in any daily newspaper printed in Portland, a notice therefor, signed by any three of the five grantees, first named in this act, setting forth the time, place and purpose of said meeting, for three days in succession, the last publication thereof to be at least three days preceding the day of said meeting.

SECT. 4. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved January 29, 1868.
