Chapter 535.

An act additional to "An act to incorporate the Freewill Baptist Foreign Mission Society."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

May hold meetings throughout United States.

SECT. 1. That the Freewill Baptist Foreign Mission Society be authorized and empowered to hold its annual meeting and meetings for business in any state of these United States, and all business transacted at such meetings as may be held in other states shall be legal as though held in this state; provided always that legal notice of all such meetings shall be given the same as if held in this state.

Proviso.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 19, 1868.

Chapter 536.

An act to incorporate the Eureka Match Company.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Corporators.

SECT. 1. James R. Clark, Thomas L. Merrill, Timothy Shaw, Jr., and Henry Wright, with their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby made and constituted a body corporate and politic, by the name of the Eureka Match Company, with power by that name to sue and be sued, and to have all the powers, privileges and immunities, and be subject to all the duties and liabilities contained in the laws of this state relating to manufacturing corporations.

Name, powers, &c.

Location and purpose.

SECT. 2. Said corporation is authorized to manufacture in the city of Biddeford, friction matches, and to deal in or sell the same there or elsewhere; to own or lease such buildings and machinery as may be necessary, and to purchase and hold such personal and real estate as may be deemed expedient in the prosecution of its business, with power to lease or sell, or otherwise dispose of and manage the same, also to make such by-laws and regulations for the management and government of said corporation as may be deemed necessary and proper.

Capital.

SECT. 3. Said corporation shall have a capital stock of fifty thousand dollars, with liberty to increase the same from time to time by a majority vote of the stockholders at any meeting duly called for that purpose, to a sum not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars; said stock to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each.
