PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1868.

---

CHAP. 556.    SECT. 2. The purpose of the corporation is to receive deposits in trust, to be loaned at interest or income for the benefit of the depositors.

Deposits.        SECT. 3. Every depositor is entitled to receive back the amount of his deposit at such times as the by-laws may prescribe, and the income resulting from the operations of the bank, after deducting reasonable expenses, shall belong to the depositors, and be paid to them in just proportions.

Approved February 21, 1868.

Chapter 556.

An act to incorporate the Waterville Hall Association.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Corporators.        SECT. 1. Charles R. McFadden, George A. Phillips, Edward G. Meader, Reuben Foster, Everett R. Drummond, and Charles K. Mathews, their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby constituted a body corporate, by the name of the Waterville Hall Association, for the purpose of building and maintaining a block of buildings in Waterville, for a public hall, and other uses.

Name and purpose.

Capital.            SECT. 2. Said corporation may purchase and hold real and personal estate to the amount of thirty-five thousand dollars, may erect and maintain a block of buildings in Waterville village, to be used for stores, halls and other purposes, and may improve, rent, lease, sell, convey and transfer the corporate property, as may be necessary.

Powers, &c.        SECT. 3. Said corporation shall have all the powers, and be subject to all the duties and liabilities, of corporations, as defined by the laws of the state.

Organization.    SECT. 4. The first meeting may be called by a majority of the corporators, by giving seven days' notice, of time and place, in any newspaper published in Kennebec county.

SECT. 5. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 21, 1868.
