PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1868.

---

CHAP. 575. 'used the same shall, within ten days after such seizure, redeem the same by making satisfaction for said offence; and may also seize, to the use of said town, all such fish as they shall suspect to have been taken contrary to the provisions of this act, unless the person in possession thereof shall give satisfactory evidence to said committee that said fish were lawfully taken.'

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 24, 1868.

Chapter 575.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to renew and extend the charter of the Bangor and Piscataquis Railroad," approved February twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred sixty-seven.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

How amended.

Section one of said act is hereby amended by adding after the word "Milford," in the ninth line 'or Oldtown;,' and also by adding the same words after the word "Milford," in section two, seventh line; and also by striking out the words "above the lower Penobscot boom," in the ninth and tenth lines of section one.

Approved February 24, 1868.

Chapter 576.

An act to cede to the United States jurisdiction over certain land in Machias.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Jurisdiction ceded to U. S. over land for custom house.

Proviso as to retention by state of concurrent jurisdiction in serving civil and criminal processes.

That there be and hereby is ceded to the United States of America the jurisdiction of such lot or parcel of land as may be selected in the town of Machias, as a site for a custom house in said place; provided always, that this cession of jurisdiction is granted and made upon the express condition that the state of Maine shall retain a concurrent jurisdiction with the United States in and over the said tract of land and every portion thereof, so far, that all process, civil or criminal, issuing under the authority of said state, or any officers thereof, may be executed by the proper officers thereof, upon any persons amenable to the same, within the limits and extent of said tract of land, in like manner and to like effect as if the said jurisdiction had not been ceded, saving, however, to the United States security to their property within the limits and extent of such lot as may be selected, an exemption of the same and the said tract of land from any taxation under the authority of said state or town, whilst the same shall continue to be owned, held, used and occupied by the United States as a site for a custom house, and not otherwise.

CHAP. 577.

Land ceded, exempted from taxation.

Approved February 24, 1868.

Chapter 577.

An act to incorporate the Stockton Savings Bank.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

- SECT. 1. N. G. Hichborn, John Griffin, L. M. Partridge, P. G. Haskell, Willard Mudgett, Willard M. Griffin, C. S. Fletcher, S. A. Randell, Wilson Hichborn, J. W. Thompson, Alexander Black, B. F. Rice, Robert Hichborn, Alexander Staples, Jr., B. M. Roberts, P. Simonton, William McGilvery and John Littlefield, their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate by the name of the Stockton Savings Bank, with power by that name to prosecute and defend suits at law and in equity, to have and use a common seal, and make all such by-laws, rules and regulations as are necessary to the government and management of their concerns, and not repugnant to the laws of the state. Said corporation shall be established in the town of Stockton, in said State of Maine, and shall be subject to all the duties and liabilities, and enjoy all the rights and privileges, incident to such corporations.
- SECT. 2. Said corporation is hereby authorized to receive deposits of money, and to issue certificates therefor, and such deposits of money shall be used as shall be judged most for the benefit of said corporation; and such deposits may be withdrawn at such reasonable time, and in such manner, as such corporation by its by-laws may determine, and the net income or profit thereof shall be divided among the persons making such deposits, their successors, administrators or assigns, in equitable proportion.
- SECT. 3. Either of the three first corporators named herein may call the first meeting of said corporation, by giving seven days written notice to each of the other corporators, or by posting in some conspicuous place a notice of the same two weeks before the meeting is held. At said first meeting, and every subsequent meeting regularly called, said corporation may elect by ballot any person or persons as members thereof, and may choose such offi-

Corporators.
