PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1868.

SECT. 2. Any person intending to drive or sluice by or through such dam, his own or the logs of another, may do so, using reasonable dispatch, at any time before the tenth day of June in each year, or at any other time when the water in said river is so high as to cause it to run to waste over the top of such dam; provided he shall have given to the owner or person in charge of such dam notice, in writing, of such intention twenty-four hours before the time mentioned in said notice for such driving or sluicing.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 27, 1868.

CHAP. 589.

Persons may drive or sluice logs at certain season and stage of water by giving prior notice to owners of dams.

Chapter 589.

An act to incorporate the Saint Johns Lodge, number fifty-one, of Free and Accepted Masons.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

SECT. 1. Sylvanus Hayward, Alonzo Stackpole, Lysander B. Young, George C. Yeaton, Shipley W. Ricker, John H. Burleigh, Elisha H. Jewett, their associates and successors, are hereby incorporated and made a body politic, by the name of Saint Johns Lodge, number fifty-one, of Free and Accepted Masons, to be established and have their place of business in the town of South Berwick, in the county of York, with power to acquire by purchase or otherwise real and personal estate to the value of twenty thousand dollars, to give and grant or bargain and sell the same at pleasure, with all the powers and privileges usually granted to corporations for masonic, benevolent and charitable purposes, not inconsistent with the laws of the state.

SECT. 2. The first meeting of said corporation may be called by either of the persons named in the first section of this act, by publishing notice thereof in one of the newspapers in said county of York, fourteen days at least before said meeting.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 28, 1868.
