PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1869.

sons described in section twenty in the manner therein provided, residing in such unincorporated place, as if in their own town, such person being entitled to a like remedy and relief. Where relief is provided for paupers residing in such places, the towns furnishing it are entitled to the same remedies against the towns where they have a settlement as if such persons resided in the town where the relief is afforded. And if such paupers have no legal settlement in any town in this state, then the state shall reimburse to the town affording relief the amount paid out and expended, or such portion thereof as the governor and council may adjudge to have been judiciously expended. And the state in like manner shall reimburse towns that may furnish relief to paupers that have no legal settlement in any town in this state and have removed from an unincorporated place.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 5, 1869.

Chapter 48.

An act to repeal section thirteen and to amend section fourteen of the revised statutes, relating to the destruction of game.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

SECT. 1. Section thirteen of chapter thirty of the revised statutes is hereby repealed.

R. S., chap. 30,
sect. 13, repealed.

SECT. 2. Section fourteen of chapter thirty of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the words "after he has had reasonable opportunity given him by the warden to show that said animal was lawfully killed, and has neglected to do so," so that said section shall read as follows: 'If any person has in his possession the carcass or hide of any such animal, within the times herein forbidden, he shall be deemed to have hunted and killed the same contrary to law, and be liable to the penalties aforesaid; but he shall not be precluded from producing proof in defence.'

R. S., chap. 30,
sect. 14, relating to evidence of unlawful killing of moose or deer, amended.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 5, 1869.
