CHAP. 660.

Chapter 660.

An act to prevent the destruction of fish in Penamaquon river, in the town of Pembroke.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Alewives and salmon not to be taken from Penamaquon river for three years.

SECT. 1. All persons are forbidden to take the fish known as alewives and salmon from Penamaquon river in Pembroke, in Washington county, for the term of three years from and after the passage of this act.

Penalties for violation of act.

SECT. 2. If any person shall violate the provisions of this act, he shall pay for each and every violation the sum of ten dollars, to be recovered in an action of debt, one-half to the person who may prosecute and the other half to the use of the town where the offence is committed.

Town of Pembroke may make regulations in regard to rights of taking fish at expiration of three years.

SECT. 3. The said town of Pembroke, at the expiration of the said three years, shall have power to make such regulations in regard to the time and manner, or disposition of the rights of taking fish in said river, as a majority of the legal voters of the town may from time to time determine: and any person who shall be guilty of taking fish from said river in Pembroke in violation of the regulations which said town may so establish, or in any manner contrary to that established by the town, shall be liable to the penalties provided in the second section of this act.

Violation of regulations of town, penalties for.

SECT. 4. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 18, 1871. :
