PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE.
1872.

CHAP. 52.

Chapter 52.

An act to correct an error in the last line of the third section of chapter one hundred and fifteen of the revised statutes, relative to the salary of the judge of probate for the county of York.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Salary of judge of probate, York county.

SECT. 1. The last line of the third section of chapter one hundred and fifteen of the revised statutes, is hereby amended by striking out the word "four" and inserting the word 'six' so as to make the law the same as it was prior to the last revision of the statutes.

Former payments made valid.

SECT. 2. All payments heretofore made by the county treasurer to the judge of probate of the county of York, for his salary, are hereby ratified and made valid ; and this act is to be of the same effect as if approved February first, eighteen hundred and seventy-one, and is to be in force from and after the date of its approval.

Approved February 28, 1872.

Chapter 53.

An act to institute harbor masters in towns.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Appointment of harbor masters.

SECT. 1. That the selectmen of towns, where they deem it expedient, may hereafter annually appoint a suitable person for harbor master, who shall be subject to all the duties and liabilities of said officer in cities, fix and establish the compensation to be received by him, and to remove from office for just and reasonable cause, by them declared in writing, after due notice to such officer and hearing thereon, if requested, and appoint another in his stead.

SECT. 2. In localities where two or more towns or cities, or town and city, are situated on the same general harbor, the larger town or city shall have the appointing power as above.

Approved February 28, 1872.
