Chapter 107.

An act to amend "an act to supply the cities of Lewiston and Auburn with pure water."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Act of Feb. 27,
1873, amendment
of.

SECT. 1. The act entitled "an act to supply the cities of Lewiston and Auburn with pure water," approved February twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and seventy-three, is hereby amended as follows: Section one of said act is amended by adding after the word "Auburn," in the third line, the words 'or the Androscoggin river;'; and section three by striking out the words "of Wilson pond," in the fourth line.

Cities may act
jointly or severally.

SECT. 2. The act aforesaid is further amended as follows: 'Provided either city shall refuse to join in carrying out the provisions of said act, then the other city shall have power to proceed alone; and all the powers and privileges granted to the two cities jointly, are hereby conferred upon either city separately; and in case either city shall proceed alone, the number of water commissioners to be elected is hereby increased to six, to be elected for six years, according to the provisions of section four of said act; and the mayor of the city, for the time being, shall be ex officio a member of said commission.'

Water commissioners, number and term of office.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 12, 1875.
