OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1876.

Chapter 75.CHAP. 75.

An act to enable non-resident Guardians to obtain property in this state belonging to their Wards residing in other states or territories of the United States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

In all cases where any guardian and his ward may both be residents of any other state or territory of the United States, and such ward may be entitled to property of any description in this state, such guardian, on producing to the probate court, or other court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which such property or the principal part thereof is situated, a full and complete transcript from the records of a court of competent jurisdiction in the state or territory in which he and his ward reside, duly exemplified or authenticated, showing that he has been appointed guardian of such ward, and that he has given a bond and security, in the state or territory in which he and his ward reside, in double the value of the property of such ward, and also showing to such court that a removal of the property of such ward will not conflict with the terms or limitations attending the right by which the ward owns the same, then such transcript may be recorded in such court, and such guardian shall be entitled to receive letters of guardianship of the estate of such ward from such court, which shall authorize him to demand, sue for and recover any such property, and remove the same to the place of residence of himself and his ward. And such court may order any resident guardian, executor or administrator, having any of the estate of such ward or wards, to deliver the same to such non-resident guardian: Provided, all debts known to exist against such estate have been first paid.

Guardians and wards, residents of other states, entitled to property in this state, proceedings in case of.

An act to amend section sixteen of chapter seventy-seven of the Revised Statutes, relating to Judicial Courts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Sec. 16, ch. 77,
R. S., amended.

Section sixteen of chapter seventy-seven of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out in the second line, the words "section fourteen," and inserting in their place the words 'this chapter,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows :

Certificate received in vacation, rendition of judgment and issue of execution.

'SECT. 16. The clerk of a county, by virtue of a certificate provided for in this chapter, received in vacation and stating the day of its reception, which shall be deemed the day of the rendition of judgment, shall enter judgment as of the preceding term, and execution may issue as of that term; but all attachments then in force continue thirty days after the next term in that county; and if the defendant was arrested on mesne process and gave bond to disclose after judgment, he may do so after said next term without breach of his bond.'

Attachments in force thirty days after next term.

Disclosures, when made.

Approved February 11, 1876.
