CHAP. 90.

An act to amend section twenty-six, chapter ninety-one, of the Revised Statutes, in relation to Lime Rock and Slate.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Section twenty-six of the ninety-first chapter of the revised statutes, is hereby amended by inserting in the fourth line of said section, after the word "vessel," 'any person who labors in quarrying, or cutting and dressing granite in any quarry, has a lien for the wages of his labor on all the granite quarried or cut and dressed in the quarry by him or his co-laborers, for thirty days after such granite is cut and dressed, or until such granite is sold, or shipped on board a vessel,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows :

Sec. 26, ch. 91,
R. S., amended.

'SECT. 26. Any person who digs, hauls or furnishes rock for the manufacture of lime, has a lien thereon for his personal services and the rock so furnished, for thirty days after such rock is manufactured into lime, or until such lime is sold or shipped on board a vessel ; any person who labors in quarrying or cutting and dressing granite in any quarry, has a lien for the wages of his labor on all the granite quarried or cut and dressed in the quarry by him or his co-laborers, for thirty days after such granite is cut and dressed, or until such granite is sold or shipped on board a vessel ; any person who labors in mining, quarrying or manufacturing slate in any quarry, has a lien for the wages of his labor on all slate mined, quarried or manufactured in the quarry by him or his co-laborers, for thirty days after the slate arrives at their port of shipment. Said liens shall have precedence of all other claims, and may be enforced by attachment within the times aforesaid.'
