OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1876.

CHAP. 135.

Chapter 135.

An act additional to chapter two hundred and twenty-three of the Public Laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-one, regulating Railroad Corporations.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Railroad tickets, cancellation and exchange of.

SECT. 1. The provisions of section one of chapter two hundred and twenty-three of the public laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-one, shall not be construed to prevent railroad corporations from establishing necessary rules and regulations for the cancellation of tickets, and exchange of partially used tickets; such rules and regulations to be publicly posted at each ticket office and on all passenger trains, and when practicable, printed upon the tickets. And any ticket or check given in exchange for the unused portion of a partially used ticket, shall continue in force for the full term of the original ticket, as provided in said section.

—tickets, &c., given in exchange to continue in force.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 23, 1876.

Chapter 136.

An act to amend section seven of chapter thirty of the Revised Statutes, relating to Bounty on Wild Animals.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Sec. 7, ch. 30, R. S., amended.

Section seven of chapter thirty of the revised statutes, is hereby amended by striking out the word "legislature," wherever it occurs in said section, and inserting instead thereof the words 'governor and council,' so that said section when amended shall read as follows :

Certificates for bounty on wild animals, to be laid before governor and council.

'SECT. 7. Said certificates and receipts shall annually, in the month of December, be transmitted to the treasurer of state, and by him laid before the governor and council as early as convenient; and when allowed by the governor and council shall be paid by the treasurer of state to such towns.'

Approved February 23, 1876.
