PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1876.

CHAP. 292. terminus in Abbot, to some point at or near Moosehead lake, and the provisions of an act entitled "an act to enable the city of Bangor to aid the Bangor and Piscataquis Railroad Company in the extended construction of its railroad," approved February twenty-two, eighteen hundred and seventy-one, are hereby continued in force and made applicable in all particulars, to any extension of said line of railroad, which shall be constructed and completed to the satisfaction of the mayor and aldermen of the said city of Bangor, within the time specified above.

Act continued in force.

SECT. 2. This act shall not take effect or be of any force, unless within one year from the date of its approval it shall be accepted by each branch of the city council of the city of Bangor, and by the legal voters of the city of Bangor, in the manner, in all respects and in all particulars, prescribed in section fourteen of the aforesaid act of February twenty-two, eighteen hundred and seventy-one, for the acceptance of that act. But if it shall be so accepted within one year from its approval, then it shall be in force thereafter, and be binding upon said city of Bangor according to its true tenor and effect, but not otherwise.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 17, 1876.

Chapter 292.

An act granting further time to the Northern Aroostook Railroad Company to make and file the location of its line of railroad.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Time of filing location of railroad, extended.

A further time of one year from January one, eighteen hundred and seventy-seven, is hereby conceded and allowed to the Northern Aroostook Railroad Company, within which to make and file a location of its line of railroad, as provided in the act chartering said company, approved February twenty-five, eighteen hundred and seventy-one.

Approved February 17, 1876.
