OF THE
STATE OF MAINE.

1877.

Chapter 149.

An act in relation to Executions.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

If an execution has been, or shall be issued by the clerk, judge, or recorder of any court in any county, upon a judgment rendered on default of an absent defendant in a personal action, within one year after the rendition of such judgment, without deposit of the bond specified in sections four and five of chapter eighty-two of the revised statutes, through accident, inadvertence, or mistake, all proceedings upon or by virtue of such execution or judgment, shall, after the expiration of one year from the rendition of such judgment, have the same effect and validity as if the bond had been duly given, deposited and approved, unless a petition for review has been brought within said year ; and, in case such judgment is not reversed on review if brought within said year, all such proceedings upon or by virtue of such execution shall be valid as aforesaid, after final judgment for the defendant in review.

Executions issued by any court, upon judgment rendered on default, without deposit of bond specified in secs. 4 and 5, ch. 82, R. S., valid in certain cases.

—exceptions.

Proceedings valid if judgment is not reversed on review.

Approved January 26, 1877.
