CHAP. 211

Cases in which a person shall not be adjudged trustee.

Wages of minor children and women for debt of parent or husband.

‘Sixth. By reason of any amount due from him to the principal defendant, as wages for his personal labor, or that of his wife or minor children, for a time not exceeding one month next preceding the service of the process, and not exceeding twenty dollars of the amount due to him as wages for his personal labor; and this shall not be exempt in any suit for necessaries furnished him or his family; moreover, wages of minor children and of women, shall not, in any case, be subject to trustee process on account of any debt of parent or husband.’

Approved February 9, 1877.

Chapter 211.

An act additional to chapter one hundred and ninety-three of the Public Laws of the year eighteen hundred and seventy-four, relating to Clerks of Judicial Courts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Clerks of courts to make extended records in indictments for felonies.

In other indictments, record, how made.

In prosecutions brought up by appeal, record, how made.

SECT. 1. In criminal prosecutions, clerks of judicial courts shall make extended records of the process, proceedings and judgment, in all indictments for felonies. In all other indictments, it shall be sufficient to record the title of the case, the nature of the indictment, the term when it was found, the proceedings in brief thereon, and the judgment and sentence of the court. And in all prosecutions brought up by appeal from inferior courts, it shall be sufficient for such clerks to record the title of the case, the nature and date of the complaint, the name and official character of the magistrate before whom the case was tried, and the sentence and date of the sentence appealed from; to be followed by correct minutes of the proceedings and judgment in the appellate court.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 9, 1877.
